

Student Scholarship Contract

A Scholarship contract must be signed by all students participating in the Harold L. Fisher Memorial Scholarship. The contract is in effect for the entire period of enrollment. Because not every conceivable incident can be covered by any contract, the school administration reserves the right to determine appropriate consequences for any conduct deemed damaging to the reputation of the school or profession. As per long standing Central Oklahoma College policy, a school administrator may impose consequences for improper conduct inside and outside the school environment.

Once you have completed registration, your scholarship will be credited toward your tuition and fees charges.

Your scholarship is combined with your Pell award to pay for your direct costs including tuition and fees. The combination of your Pell and scholarship cannot exceed the direct costs of tuition and fees.

The responsibilities required by you as the recipient of this scholarship award are:

- (1) To successfully complete the credits required to earn a certificate.
- (2) To represent academic work with a minimum of 85% grade point average at all times.
- (3) To maintain attendance standards with a minimum of 90% of in each grading period.
- (4) To maintain the required SAP standards. Progress will be checked on a weekly basis.
- (5) To abide by all rules and regulations in all school related activities on and off campus.

Stipend Amount

During the 2015-2016 and 2016-2017 academic years, Central Oklahoma College will pay a full-time student that has been awarded the scholarship a monthly stipend amount of $200. The stipend is to pay for transportation expenses. The stipend will be issued every other week in the amount of $100.00.

Discontinuance:

If you enroll and then do not attend as scheduled or, once enrolled, withdraw from the course, for any reason, the entire scholarship will be canceled. If you need to discontinue because of extreme extenuating circumstances, please contact the Financial Aid office.

I agree to follow the expectations and to abide by the terms of this contract. I will strive to contribute positively to my own professional development, the quality of academic life for all students and the orderliness and safety of our school. My signature is my pledge to give my personal best in meeting all rules and standards in all school related activities on and off campus.
